

Example: Tell who or what the sentence is about.

A. My friends came to my house.

My friends. (That is the subject of the sentence.)

*What did my friends do? They came. (That is the predicate.)

Here is your work:

1. Joe read four books.

Who or what is the sentence about? _____

What did he do? _____

2. Seven tall boys climbed up the mountain.

Who or what is the sentence about? _____

What did they do? _____

3. Rocks flew down from the castle walls.

Who or what is the sentence about? _____

What did they do? _____

4. We learned about Mark's trip today.

Who or what is the sentence about? _____

What did we do? _____

5. Do you like swimming?

Who or what is the sentence about? _____

What do you do? _____